About Me

Product & growth leader with 10+ years of experience scaling content-led platforms, accelerating acquisition, and driving monetization through data-backed strategies.

Professional Experience

Product & Growth Manager

Wild Triumph | June 2018 – Present

(Adventure travel platform targeting niche audience via content and affiliates)

- Drove end-to-end product lifecycle—from ideation to launch—resulting in sustained traffic and revenue growth.
- Owned SEO strategy and execution, driving consistent traffic growth via on-page, off-page, and technical SEO improvements.
- Implemented data-driven content systems, structured topical clusters, and improved user flow to boost engagement and retention.
- Managed PPC campaigns across Facebook and Google Ads, achieving optimized ROAS via targeted segmentation.
- Built affiliate partnerships and integrated monetization strategies, contributing to consistent recurring revenue growth.
- Collaborated with cross-functional teams including content creators, designers, and developers to deliver seamless user experiences.
- Ran A/B tests, monitored user behavior via GA, and prioritized features based on insights and KPIs.
- Ensured product quality, mobile responsiveness, and performance optimization across multiple devices and geos.

Senior Executive – Category Management (FMCG)

Snapdeal | December 2014 – April 2018

(E-commerce company based in New Delhi, India)

- Led strategy, pricing, content, and marketing for 25+ high-impact FMCG brands including Pepsi, Kraft Heinz, and Patanjali.
- Delivered 200% YoY growth during festive campaigns through pricing initiatives, campaign design, and conversion optimization.
- Executed digital ads and social strategies to drive product discovery and engagement.
- Supported onboarding and go-to-market efforts for new vendor brands on the platform. Gained deep exposure to user segmentation, GTM planning, and category-level decision-making—foundational to future product work.

Deputy Manager – Sales

Religare Finvest Limited | April 2014 – December 2014

(A non-banking financial company and a subsidiary of Religare Enterprises)

- Leveraged client insights to improve conversions.
- Drove process improvements and client retention strategies through lifecycle engagement tracking.
